Proposal to open more foodgrain Markets in Gujarat

3229. SHRI GOPALSINH G. SOLANKI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the number of food grain markets in Gujarat alongwith locations thereof:

(b) whether Government propose to open some new markets in the State during the year 1993-94 and 1994-95;

(c) if so. what are the details thereof:

(d) whether Government have chalked out any programme to provide more facilities in these markets; and

(e) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVE LOPMENT (DEPARTMENT OF DEVELOPMENT) (SHRI UTTAMBHAI PATEL): (a) There are 223 markets where foodgrains are mainly marketed. The locations are given as statement, (See below)

(b) to (e). The centrally sponsored scheme for Development of Markets has been transferred to the State Governments as per decision of the National Development Council from the year 1992-93. Therefore, the Government of India has no plan either to open new markets or provide facilities in the existing markets in the State. However, the Slate Government proposes to open some new markets during the year 1994-95, the details of which are yet to be finalised. The State Government has also made a provision of Rs. 334.00 lakhs in the State five year plan for providing infrastructural facilities in the market yards, out of which Rs. 44.00 lakhs have been provided for the current financial year and Rs. 38.00 lakhs have been proposed for the year 1994-95.
